"Mr. Silas Burns—Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The Engine, as to finish and in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The Mills run with a smoothness and speed truly estonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot, in 3½ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per property of the top speed we fully believe we per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes too many hands to haul up logs and heard urged is, it takes too many carry away lumber. Yours, &c.,

February 11, 1854. PACT VS. FICTION.—JUST PUBLISHED, THE OLD BREWERY, and the New Mission AT THE PIYE

POINTS, By the Ladies of the Mission. The Publishers take pleasure in inviting the attention of the moral world to this charming production as one of the most remarkable ever offered to the public; and they confidently present it as one of the most touching and in pressive volumes which have fallen from the press since the first issue of Mr. Warren's "Diary of a Physician." The papers composing this work are not mere fancy sketches, written for the purpose of a simple commercial speculation, but the written histories of fallen ones who have been missed; of lost ones who have been reclaimed; of Idleness which has been led to Industry; of Drunkenness which has there led to Industry; of Drunkenness which has thrown away the Cup; of Poverty which has put on the garb of Comfort; of Despair which has begun again to Hope; of Ignorance which has crept out of Darkness up to Light; and of Sintul Weakness which has thrown of Falsebood, Crime and Shamo, and now walks firmly forth in all a Christian's strength. The volume overflows with incidents which are real; with The volume overflows with incidents which are real; with The volume overflows with incidents which are real; with pictures drawn, not from fancy, but from life—the whole invested with a freshness which can only come from the vital fount of truth. As a whole the publishers present it as one of the truthfulest mirrors of human weakness, infirmity and suffering, and of the most sublime and self-sacricing Christian faithfulness and heroism, ever offered to the public.
